Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Yahn has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Yahn is having a birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, In 1931, Bill and two friends stopped in Belle Fourche on their way to Alaska and Bill stayed on. He worked for and subsequently owned Tri-State Bakery from 1933 until the present; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has given much to South Dakota during his lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Bill on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Bill Yahn's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 22, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing Bill a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE BAILTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
